

German Association of International Law, Working Group: International Health Law &
Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law

The COVID-19 Pandemic and International Law
Friday, 24 September, 2021, 15:00 – 18:00
Online Event

Registration: <https://bit.ly/3jDFpBA>

PROGRAMME

15:00 – 15:05	Dr. Pedro A. Villarreal/Dr. Elif Askin Working Group Coordinators Welcoming Remarks
FIRST PANEL ILA Committee on Global Health Law: Past, Present and Future Chair: Dr. Pedro A. Villarreal
15:05 – 15:20	Prof. Frederick Abbott Florida State University College of Law (USA) Co-Chair of the ILA Global Health Law Committee
15:20 – 15:35	Prof. Stefania Negri University of Salerno (Italy) Member of the ILA Global Health Law Committee
15:35 – 15:50	Dr. Ellen t’Hoen Medicines Law & Policy/University of Groningen (Netherlands) Member of the ILA Global Health Law Committee
15:50 – 16:20	General Debate
16:20 – 16:30	PAUSE/COFFEE BREAK
SECOND PANEL Select Research on International Health Law and COVID-19 Chair: Dr. Elif Askin
16:30 – 16:45	Prof. Silja Vöneky/Eva-Maria Böning/Laura Tribess University of Freiburg (Germany) Better Safe than Sorry: Human Rights Obligations to Prevent and Pandemics
16:45 – 17:00	Raphael Oidtmann Peace Research Institute Frankfurt/Mannheim Law School (Germany) The Concept of (International) Borders in Times of Global Pandemics
17:00 – 17:15	Luciano Bottini Filho Centre for Health, Law and Society, University of Bristol (United Kingdom) Resource Allocation, Bioethics and the International Right to Health in the COVID-19 Pandemic
17:15 – 17:45	General Debate
17:45 – 17:50	Closing Remarks by Conveners